Field Marshal Haig added that the the existing war." eapture of 75,000 German prisoners and 750 guns in the course of four weeks' fighting showed the magni tude of the achievement. The gen-

"Yet more than that has been done.
We have made a wide breach in the enemy's stront lefenses, in this glorious accompashment all ranks and all arms of service in the British armies have borne their part in a most worthy and honorable manner. "The capture of 75,000 prisoners and 750 guns in the course of four weeks fighting speaks for the mag-mitude of the achievement."

"My thanks are due to all ranks of the fighting forces for the indomit-able spirit of defense and the bold-mess to attack and to all commanders and staff officers.

Filled With Pride. "To have commanded this splendid army, which at the time of a grave crisis has so nobly done its duty, fills

"We passed through many dark days together. Please God they never will return.

"The enemy has now spent his effect. I rely confidently upon each man to turn to advantage the opportunity which your skill, courage and desolution have created."
